Andrew Murray discusses the need for us to surrender ourselves to the will of God and hold nothing back. He does a wonderful character study of Peter, looking at the amazing transformation from the man who denied Jesus 3 times, to the man who would become the rock the church was built on. Mr. Murray really makes the case of the struggling Christian in Roman Absolute Surrender is a must-read classic for any Christian.

This is another great classic by Andrew Murray where he discusses the necessity of absolute surrender to God. I found very few errors in writing mechanics. He often uses plural possessive pronouns with a singular noun, as in "our life" instead of "our lives."
