Revision 24 of Handling Federal Discovery addresses the seismic shift in federal discovery caused by the once-in-a-generation COVID-19 pandemic. Courts and practitioners alike have had to quickly adopt new technologies, and adapt to shifting circumstances as technology continues to change discovery practices. Some would argue these changes were long overdue. For example, this Revision addresses the new paradigm in remote depositions which, once a rare occurrence, has now become part of what many courts call "the new norm." See Task 61. Revision 24 also again adds nearly 100 new (and recently decided) cases, replacing older cases that no longer reflect modern federal discovery practice, and further highlights the impact of the pandemic on different aspects of federal discovery. Practitioners can continue to find a dedicated focus on evolving jurisprudence as well as an updated practical guide on how to anticipate and successfully navigate federal discovery in the post-pandemic world. Some key developments covered include: PLANNING DISCOVERY Determine Discovery Goals (Task 1) PRELIMINARY INVESTIGATION Interview Nonparties (Task 9) Pursue Public Sources of Information (Task 10) PRIVILEGE & WORK PRODUCT Asserting Privileges (Tasks 12-14) DISCLOSURES Attend FRCP 16 Scheduling Conference (Task 25) INTERROGATORIES Propound Interrogatories (Task 30) REQUESTS FOR PRODUCTION Propound & Respond to Requests to Produce (Task 36-37) Produce and Inspect Documents and Things (Task 38) NON-PARTY DISCOVERY Challenge & Enforce Subpoenas (Task 41-42) PHYSICAL AND MENTAL EXAMINATIONS • Request & Oppose Examination (Task 47-48) REQUEST FOR ADMISSIONS Respond to RFAs (Task 53) DEPOSITIONS Take Remote Depositions (Task 61) EXPERTS Determine Whether to Retain Experts (Task 70) COMPEL, RESIST, & AMEND DISCOVERY Meet and Confer (Task 80) Move to Compel Depositions (Task 82) Request Additional Discovery in Response to MSJ (Task 96A) Oppose Request for Additional Discovery for MSJ Response (Task 96B) Stipulated Protective Order (Form 32) AND MORE!

This report should be viewed as a beginning. It explores from one perspective the operation of the federal rules governing discovery as revealed in more than 7, 000 docketed requests appearing in more than 3, 000 terminated cases in six United States district courts. (A survey of practitioners in the six districts suggests that the docketed requests cover the great bulk of discovery activity.) The report is a continuation of the Center's District Court Studies Project, the first report of which (Case Management and Court Management in United States District Courts) appeared several months ago.

Presents the results of the first national field survey of how lawyers use pretrial discovery in practice. Pretrial discovery is a complex set of rules and practices through which the adversaries in a civil dispute are literally allowed to "discover" the facts and legal arguments their opponents plan to use in the trial, with the purpose of improving the speed and quality of justice by reducing the element of trickery and surprise. Dr. Glaser examines the uses, problems, and advantages of discovery. He concludes that it is in wide use in federal civil cases, but that while the procedure has produced more information in some areas, it has failed to bring other improvements favored by its original authors.

This Handbook is designed to help people dealing with civil lawsuits in federal court without legal representation. Proceeding without a lawyer is called proceeding "pro se1," a Latin phrase meaning "for oneself," or sometimes "in propria persona," meaning "in his or her own person." Representing yourself in a lawsuit can be complicated, time consuming, and costly. Failing to follow court procedures can mean losing your case. For these reasons, you are urged to work with a lawyer if possible. Chapter 2 gives suggestions on finding a lawyer. Do not rely entirely on this Handbook. This Handbook provides a summary of civil lawsuit procedures, but it may not cover all procedures that may apply in your case. It also does not teach you about the laws that will control your case. Make sure you read the applicable federal and local court rules and do your own research at a law library or online to understand your case. The United States District Court for the Northern District of California has Clerk's Offices in the San Francisco, San Jose and Oakland courthouses. Clerk's Office staff can answer general questions, but they cannot give you any legal advice. For example, they cannot help you decide what to do in your lawsuit, tell you what the law means, or even advise you when documents are due. There are Legal Help Centers in the San Francisco, Oakland and San Jose courthouses where you can get free help with your lawsuit from an attorney who can help you prepare documents and give limited legal advice. This attorney will not be your lawyer and you will still be representing yourself. See Chapter 2 for more details.
