The Bible
says the old
life is gone
and the new life has come (see 2
Cor. 5:17).
But we still sin; still
get angry,
arrogant,

and greedy.
Sin destroys
everything
in its path,
yet it's also kind of fun and
quite compelling.
It often has
us holding
on to parts of the old
life instead
of embracing
the new life
we've been promised. In Done with
That, Pastor
Bob Merritt
exposes the
inner battle
we all fight
with sin. He
cycle of
failure and

loss and
shows
readers that
no matter
how many
setbacks
they've
experienced,
there is a
way to enjoy
a new and better life
in Christ.

Walking around the commercial streets of New York, San Francisco, Milan, London, or Paris and looking at the succession of multinational chain stores' windows, you can easily forget what country you are in. However, if you hear the small talk among the employees, you hear very different stories. In New York, a 30-year-old woman is worried because she does not know if she will work enough hours to make a living the following week—whereas, in Milan, a mother of the same age knows she will work 20 hours a week but is concerned about whether her contract will be renewed at the end of the following month. Following three years of fieldwork, which included 100 in-depth interviews with front-line retail workers and unionists in New York City and Milan, Front-Line Workers in the Global Service Economy investigates both the lived experiences of salespersons in the "fast fashion" industry—a retail sector
